All Josh knows is the ministry of the Lord Jesus Christ. He can do and has done it all. He is a great speaker and awesome at the altars yet can run all the equipment and train others to do it. Many pastors and churches inquire of Josh about their media and other equipment before they purchase.

Being hand-trained by one of God's generals, his own dad, Mark T. Barclay, he has become a great leader and trainer of God's people, helping them find their place in the ministry.

As well as traveling, Josh successfully co-pastors Living Word International Church alongside his parents. He also produces the Mark T. Barclay national telecast and directs all of MBM's citywide meetings and conventions.

Josh is highly anointed to bring the Word of God to the contemporary Church and to fill the altars of God with people looking for help.

You will enjoy his fresh approach to the Holy Scriptures and the strength he will bring to your people. He truly believes in the local church and the local church pastor. He has not only spoken many times on being "second and satisfied," but he proves it every day with his very life.
